Dommerpresentasjon

Sabine Rauhut, Tyskland

I was born in 1963 and unfortunately grew up without dogs in my parents' house. I am a qualified chemist by profession and have worked in research for many years. 1989 I bought my first dog- a long-haired shepherd dog. With this female I was also very successful in Dogsports. Soon afterwards I fulfilled my dream with my first Bernese Mountain Dog, we bred this breed until 2000 and our last Bernese Mountain Dog died in 2015.

From 1990 to 2000 I was co-owner of a dog school in which all dog breeds were trained, including for the police service.

In 1993 the first Tibetan Terrier "Paulinchen" moved into our house. We fell in love with the Tibetan breeds and shortly after we started to breed Tibetan Terrier. In 1998 we then bought our first Lhasa Apso. In 2002 the first Lhasa Apso litter was born. Today I breed Tibet Terriers and American Akita very successfully under the kennel name "Ti La Shu" in the VDH / FCI in Germany.

Our puppies live in many countries around the world. We have bred a large number of international champions, as well as World champions, European champions and champions in more than 30 countries. We are particularly proud of our Number one Dog all breed in Germany 2009 (Nike), 2016 (Kivi), 2018 (Chilli) and 2019 (Peanut), which makes it 4 times in total.

I completed my FCI judge training for the Tibetan breeds in 2013 and since then I have judged the 4 Tibetan breeds Do Khyi, Tibetan Terrier, Tibetan Spaniel and Lhasa Apso, as well as Shih Tzu, Chihuahua, American Akita, Akita and Cavalier King Charles Spaniel at home and abroad.
